MAYNARD IS GUILTY

The Judge Who Aided the Democratic Steal in New York

THE CITY BAR ASSOCIATION,

Composed of the Leading Lawyers of New York, Vote Almost Unanimously Condemn his Action in Suppress ing Returns and Demand his Removal from the Supreme Bench.

New York, March 24 .- The bar association of the city of New York tried Judge Isaac C. Maynard, of the court of appeals, on the charges made against him in connection with the alleged stealing of the Fifteenth senatorial district by the Democrate after the last election. Their verdict was "guilty."

A few friends-personal and political -made a hard fight to secure an acquittal, but the jury was almost unanimous.

Judge Maynard was found guilty of reprehensible conduct in the Duchess county election case by a vote of about five to one, and the legislature will be asked to remove him from the office to asked to remove him from the office to which he was but recently appointed.

The meeting of the Association was made up of the best-known lawyers of the city and of, the state. Wheeler H. Peckham presided. Over 250 lawyers were present. John M. Bowers marshaled the forces friendly to the accused indee.

The special investigating committee, The special investigating committee, which consisted of Frederick R. Coudert, James C. Carter, John E. Parsons, Clifford A. Hand, E. Randolph Robinson, John L. Cadwallader, William B. Hornblower, Eliha Root and Albert Stickney reported that they had examined every paper and document amined every paper and document having any material connection with the charges and had procured state-ments either oral or written from most of the counsel connected with the legal or the coinset connected with the legal proceedings. The committee devotes some space to the consideration of Judge Maynard's conrection with the action of the Board of State Canvassers in refusing to canvass the corrected return and canvassing in place thereof what is called the "Mylod Return," and goes on to say: goes on to say:
"Judge Maynard now disclaims any connection with that action, and states that his connection with the cases ended when the decision of the court of appeals was announced; but he fails to state how or why that connection was terminated.

"This omission is not without signficance. Under the existing circumstances, in our opinion, he could not be divested of responsibility; he saw the board of state canvassers violating the law and issuing a false certificate upon a false return, and making his act in re moving the true return the protest for their action. He cannot evade just re-sponsibilities by asserting that his rela-tions to the case had ceased.

"It seems to us quite clear that the removal and the suppression of the cor-rected returns could have had no other purpose than the one actually accom-plished. Judge Maynard's letter fur-nishes evidence against himself stronger than any that we previously had in our

29, when the Mylode return was counted in the face of the opinion of the court of appeals upon the pretext that the corrected return was not before the state board, he was present and re-mained silent, although he was well aware of the fact that the decision of the court of appeals required the counting of the corrected roturn, in the re-moval of which he was the chief party concerned.

"If we correctly stated the facts, the offence committed by Judge Maynard is one of the gravest known to the law."

The report then says the Penal Code is explicit. A passer who will all the property of the pro is explicit. A person who wilfully and unlawfully removes, mutilates or de-stroys books pamphlets, records of docu-ments filed or deposited in a public office, or with any public officer by authority of law, is punishable by im-prisonment for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than $500.

The report then says it is impossible to consider Judge Maynard's action as having been performed through ignorance, in the heat of political contest, or without due deliberation.

In the opinion of the committee he

as to filmself remove the returns.

The committee recommended the adoption of the following:

After considerable discussion, in which Judge Maynard was strongly de-fended by his friends, the report was adopted.

FINAL VOTE NEEDED.

Republicans Should Not Help the Demo-crats in a Dishonest Trick. New York Tribune Again the Democrats who want to dodge a direct vote on the silver question are hoping for the aid of Republi can members of the house. Their plan is to offer an amendment postponing the silver act until December, with a provision that an international conferonce shall meanwhile be invited. But it requires only a little knowledge of the situation to convince any fair man that the one thing necessary, it an interna-tional conference is to be held at all and is to have a chance to do any good, is that the bill providing for free coinage shall first be defeated, and not merely deferred with a probable majority in its deferred with a probable majority in its favor. It is measurably certain that Great Britain and Germany will consent to nothing in conference looking toward a larger use of silver so long as they expect that the United States will quickly take the whole loss and assume the whole burden and risk by free coinage of silver.

The object of the Democrats in this instance is precisely what it was when they voted for postponement of the debate until December. They desire to deceive the people again in certain.

deceive the people again in certain-deceive the people again in certain-districts; and by so doing to secure a majority in the next house and to gain Presidential electors in states where they would have no chance if com-mitted to free silver. The people, they reason, can be persuaded that all votes by Democrats prior to this year do not count, because cast under different count, because cast under different financial circumstances, or with mis-taken ideas of the popular feeling, and did not in any permanent sense com-mit the party. Then a veto of post-ponement can be represented in anti-silver districts as a virtual defeat of the measure, but in silver districts it can be said that the measure was only de-ferred in order to gain something more by international conference. The coun-try is perfectly familiar, and also absolutely disgusted, with Democratic double-dealing and trickery on this question. Yet Democrats in the house are fighting desperately for another chance to defraud and deceive the voters, hoping to steak seats in Congress by falsely representing the attitude and by falsely representing the attitude and purpose of their party.

The Tribune cannot see any reason why Republican representatives should why Republican representatives should help this dishonest trick. The ques-tion of free coinage is now properly be-fore the house. The country has been disturbed in its industries and its finance for more than a year by the certainty that the present house was in favor of free coinage. It is not just to business interests that the question be left open until next winter. No other left open until next winter. No other thing could do so much to restore financial confidence as a demonstration that free coinage cannot possibly come until after another Congress and President have been elected. It seems to be the plain duty of Republicans to insist upon a final vote without delay, in or-der that the bill may be killed, and not merely postponed. It would be deliberate deception of

It would be deliberate deception of the people to assist this latest Demo-cratic trick. The voters of every dis-trict have a right to know precisely where their representatives stand on this question, not by inference or pro-fession, but by a recorded and final vote. It is their right not to be cheated any longer by candidates who pretend to be against free comage, but who go to Washington when elected and act with a political party entirely controlled by a free-coinage majority. If Repub-lican representatives help the latest lican representatives help the latest Democratic scheme by voting for post-ponement, it seems to the Tribune that they will be making themselves parties to a deception and defrauding of the people, and that their act must injure the Republican party, and can only the Republican party, and can only help those Democrats who wish to get places by pretending that their party means one thing when in fact it mean

If duty to the industries and the business of the country requires a decisive vote, and if duty to voters requires that they should not be deceived any longer, Republican members certainly have the strongest partisan reasons also for insisting upon a vote which must expose and divide the Democratic party. Each and divide the Democratic party. Each member must be personally aware that it could only help the Democratic party and hurt the Republicans in many districts to allow further evasion of a final vote on the pending bilk. The place for Republicans to vote no, firmly and loudly, is on the passage of the bill. But another excellent place to vote no is on any motion to postpone it.

A Kansas Man's Experience With Coughs and Colds.

Colds and coughs have been so prevalent during the past few months that the experience of Albert Favorite, of Arkansas City, Kan., cannot fail to interest some of our readers. Here it is in his own words: "I contracted a cold early last spring that settled on my lungs and had hardly recovered from it when I caught another that hung on all summer and left me with a hacking cough which I thought I never would get rid of. I had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy some fourteen years ago with much success and concluded to try it again. When I had got through with one bottle my cough had left, we god! one bottle my cough had left me and I have not suffered with a cough or cold have not suffered with a cough or cold since. I have recommended it to others and all speak well of it." 50-cent bot-tles for sale by druggists.

Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. CHEGGO, ILL., March 24.—Eighty cent wheat was the goal for the bears to-day. They did not get there. Nevertheless the season record for a low price was again broken. Spring like weather and weak cables took the heart out of the wheat market early. The recovery near the close was on short buying reported from Minneapolis and elsewhere. Two things which greatly interested traders, but did not affect prices, were John L.
